

Youth Services Resource Guide

City Of Greensboro

Abuse, Neglect and Foster Care

Afterschool/Day Care

Counseling, Mental Health and Behavioral Health

Court, Police and Mediation

Diverse and Special Needs

Early Childhood Education

Health

Faith Based Services

Employment and Training

Parenting and Family Development

Mentoring

Life Skills

Recreation and Extracurricular Activities

Substance Abuse

Teen Pregnancy

Tutoring and Academic Support

Housing Assistance

Other Services

Please contact 373-CITY (2489) with questions. These materials/statements/programs are not endorsed by the City of Greensboro nor do they represent the City's position or policy.

Community Resource	Website/Email	Phone	Description of Services
--------------------	---------------	-------	-------------------------

Abuse, Neglect and Foster Care

Department of Social Services, Child Protective Services	www.co.guilford.nc.us	Greensboro (336) 641-3795 High Point (336) 845-3795	You can make a report of child abuse by calling, writing, or visiting Guilford County Department of Social Services, Child Protective Services Division.
Act Together Crisis Care—Youth Focus	www.youthfocus.org	(336) 375-1332	A 9 bed facility for youth ages 11-17 who have run away, are experiencing a family crisis, are the victims of abuse or neglect or become homeless for other reasons. The average stay is 30 days.
AGAPE of NC Inc.	www.agapeofnc.org	(336) 855-7107	Provides services to abused and neglected children and their families through adoptions, foster care, and counseling.
Children's Home Society of North Carolina	www.chsnc.org	1-800-632-1400	CHS Adoption and Foster Care program provides the following services to improve quality-of-life for children at risk: Foster Care—Parent training and support services for temporary placement of children in safe, nurturing foster homes; Adoption—Social work, recruitment, training, referral, placement, assessment, and post-placement services; The Alliance—Needs-assessments of children and specialized therapy enabling successful adoptive placements; Supportive Post Adoption Network Services – Social work services to prevent placement disruption and specialized trainings addressing the needs of children with traumatic pre-adoption experiences.

Elon Homes for Children	www.elonhomes.org/	(336) 292-6008	Private foster care and group homes providing a continuum of services that enhance the quality of spiritual, physical, emotional, intellectual, and relational well-being of youth and their families. Students may be admitted to Elon Homes for Children directly by referral from Department of Social Services, Area Program Mental Health Agencies, juvenile court counselors, outpatient therapists, hospitals, or other treatment centers. Children that are referred must be in the custody of the Department of Social Services or have a Voluntary Placement Agreement, which is obtained through the local DSS.
Family Preservation Services—Youth Focus	www.youthfocus.org	(336) 333-6853	Intensive home-based model of help and education to keep troubled families from being separated. Counselors provide up to 15 hours of help each week.
Family Service of the Piedmont	www.familyservice-piedmont.org	Greensboro (336) 387-6161 High Point (336) 889-6161	In addition to providing assessment and referrals, the agency offers individual and group therapy for children or adults on a variety of issues. STAR (Strategic Treatment and Restructuring) is a twenty- week group treatment program for individual parents or parenting couples 18 years or older who are involved with DSS or the court system due to child maltreatment issues. When calling, ask for Intake Services.
Foster Friends of North Carolina	www.fosterfriendsnc.org	(336) 834-9919	Provides enrichment opportunities, life skills & character building programs, long term mentors, and fun events for children living in foster care.
Guardian Ad Litem	www.nccourts.org/Citizens/GAL/Default.asp	(336) 412-7597	Trains child advocates who represent abused/neglected children in Juvenile court after being removed from their families.

Youth Unlimited	www.youthunlimited.cc	(336) 883-1361	Provides residential care and counseling services for adolescents with severe behavioral problems at school or home. Provides community-based programs in foster care, intensive in-home services, diagnostic assessment, day treatment, and community support.
-----------------	--	----------------	---

After School Care/Day Care Services

Regional Child Care Resources & Referral	No webpage	Greensboro (336) 369-5097	Coordinates services to meet early educational and child care needs in Guilford County. Helps parents in securing community resources and in acquiring the highest level of educational and child care services available.
After-school Care Enrichment Services (ACES)	www.gcsnc.com	(336) 370-2321	After school program which provides academic and recreational activities for students in grades K-5.
Boys & Girls Club of Greater High Point	www.hpclubs.org	(336) 882-2582	Provides targeted and results-oriented programs for disadvantaged youth, with a focus on Education and Career Development, Health and Life Skills, the Arts, Character and Leadership Development, and Sports, Fitness, and Recreation.
Head Start/Early Head Start (HS/EHS)	www.guilfordchilddev.org	(336) 369-5097 or (336) 369-5095	Provides high-quality preschool education to at-risk children (ages 0-5) at 13 four and five star HS/EHS child care centers located in Greensboro and High Point.
Regional Child Care Resources and Referral (RCCR&R)	www.guilfordchilddev.org	(336) 378-7700	Provides online child care search tool, online referral request, parent counseling, child care scholarships, provider training, & employer child care services.
Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro	www.greensborobgc.org	(336) 235-0346	The Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro provides tutoring, computer training, sports education, homework help, and mentoring.

Support Our Students—YWCA	www.ywcagsonc.org	(336) 273-3461	SOS works to increase safe, affordable after school care for middle school adolescents. SOS builds children's self-identity, and increases academic performance, interests and success. SOS is held at Allen, Aycock, Eastern Guilford, Guilford, Jamestown, and Southern Guilford middle schools.
The Music Academy	www.musicacademync.org	(336) 379-8748	The Academy provides group music lessons and performances in Guilford County ACES programs, as well as private schools.
Greensboro Parks and Recreation Afterschool Care Program	www.greensboro-nc.gov	(336) 373-2927	Ages: 5-12 year olds. Monday-Friday 2:30-6:00 PM during the school year. Located at our recreation centers.
Washington Drive Resource and Enrichment Center	www.hpymca.org/chavis/index.asp	(336) 434-5440	Affiliated with the Carl Chavis YMCA. Offers resource and enrichment activities, including Learn and Earn youth reading program.
YMCA of Greensboro	www.ymcagreensboro.org	(336) 854-8410	Seven locations offering recreational, physical fitness, athletic, educational, and after school programs.
YMCA of High Point	www.hpymca.org	(336) 869-0151	Several locations offering programs and activities for children, adults and seniors. Programs include aerobics, cardiovascular exercising, adult sports, youth sports, youth summer camps and swimming.
YWCA of Greensboro	www.ywcagsonc.org	(336) 273-3461	Offers health and fitness services, educational workshops, skill development, and after school care.
YWCA of High Point	www.ywcahp.com	(336) 882-4126	Offers programs in health, fitness, and after school care. Serves all sectors of the community, including men, but places emphasis on programs for women and girls.

Counseling, Mental & Behavioral Health

Catholic Social Services	www.cssdc.org or www.cssnc.org	(336) 274-5577	CSS offers services including pregnancy support, counseling, and Latino services.
Cheshire Center	www.cheshirecenter.net	(336) 375-2240 1-800-360-1099	Cheshire Center, Inc. is the largest private clinic in the area providing Speech Therapy, Developmental Therapy (C.B.R.S.), Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy to a largely pediatric population.

Children's Home Society of North Carolina	www.chsnc.org	(800) 632-1400	CHS services include pregnancy counseling, family and therapeutic foster care, domestic adoption for infants and older children, and adoption support services.
Counseling Services—Youth Focus	www.youthfocus.org	Greensboro (336) 333-6853 High Point (336) 841-6083	Therapists work with young people ages 7 to 17 and their families to resolve issues such as delinquency, truancy, substance abuse and behavior problems, both at home and school.
Family Life Council of Greater Greensboro—Merged with CHS program and Services	www.chsnc.org	(336) 333-6890	Provides accessible, high-quality and diverse programs, resources and advocacy for today's families, educators and community agencies.
Family Service of the Piedmont	www.safeandhealthyfamilies.com	Greensboro (336) 387-6161 High Point (336) 889-6161	Focused on building safe and healthy families and strong communities by providing counseling, victim services, prevention services, and community education.
Grief Support Groups for Children—Hospice and Palliative Care of Greensboro	hospicegso.org	(336) 544-5437	Children cope with loss differently than adults. The Kids Path staff of HPCG offer support activities for children and adolescents throughout the year.
Grief Support Groups for Children—Hospice of the Piedmont	hospiceofthepiedmont.org/kidspath.php	(336) 889-8446	For children (up to age 18), support groups and individual counseling are available to address the unique needs and issues of grieving children and adolescents through the Kids Path program. Individual and family sessions can also be arranged with a Bereavement Counselor.
Guilford Center—Merged with Sandhill Center	www.sandhillscenter.org	1-800-256-2452	Provides confidential services for residents of Guilford County of all ages with mental illnesses, developmental disabilities and substance abuse problems.
Institute for Family Centered Services	www.ifcsinc.com	(336) 297-9009	Provides programs dedicated to the health and safety of the children, youth, and families and strives to empower those families to successfully raise their children within a normalized environment.
Jewish Family Services	www.shalomgreensboro.org/	(336) 852-4829	Offers information and Referral line, counseling, Resettlement Services, Financial Assistance, Goodwill Coupons, and the Jewish Community High School program.

Mell-Burton and Structured Day School—Youth Focus	www.youthfocus.org	(336) 375-5502	Day treatment program for middle and high school students with serious emotional and behavioral problems.
Mental Health Association—Greensboro	www.mhag.org	(336) 373-1402	The Association conducts programs which help promote better mental health, provides support to those who suffer from mental illness and strives to reduce the stigma associated with mental illness through education and service.
Behavioral Health Hospital-Cone Health	www.conehealth.com	Hospital (336) 832-9650 24/7 Hotline (336) 832-9700	24 hour inpatient crisis stabilization for children and adolescents 5-18 struggling with mental health/behavioral health concerns.
Presbyterian Counseling	www.presbyteriancounseling.org	(336) 288-1484	At PCC we provide a safe and confidential setting for people to heal emotionally, relationally and spirituality through affordable, competent psychotherapy and education. We warmly welcome clients of all faith traditions and respect the spirituality of each person.
Psychiatric Residential Treatment Facility—Youth Focus	www.youthfocus.org	(336) 375-8333	Serves young people (13-17) who suffer from severe emotional and/or behavioral problems who cannot be successfully treated through outpatient counseling, group home placement, or other non- secure community interventions.
Therapeutic Family Services-Youth Focus	www.youthfocus.org	336-333-6853	Provides treatment for young people with mental health and substance abuse problems ages 7-17 in private foster homes.
Tristan's Quest, Inc.	www.tristansquest.com	(336) 547-7460	An organization which receives gifts, grants, and fees for services and is dedicated to improving the quality of life for children and adolescents with emotional/behavioral challenges and their families through public and professional education, family support, and direct services.

Transitions Mentoring Services	www.transitionsmentoringservices.com	(336) 907-7308	Transitions Mentoring Services provides Outpatient Therapy for children and Adults starting at age five. Therapists work with children and their families to explore and resolve symptoms related to behavioral health. Our licensed counselors assist clients in developing coping skills to be used when dealing with issues such as anxiety, anger, grief, ADHD, defiance and various life stressors.
UNC-G Psychology Clinic	www.uncg.edu/psy/clinics/psy/	(336) 334-5662	Therapy and testing
Youth Unlimited	www.youthunlimited.cc	(336) 883-1361	Provides residential care and counseling services for adolescents with severe behavioral problems at school or home. Provides community-based programs in foster care, intensive in-home services, diagnostic assessment, day treatment, and community support.
ARJ, LLC	www.arjcares.com	336-763-0313	Serving adults and children by providing the following support services: Outpatient Therapy (OPT), Intensive In-Home (IIH), Community Support Team (CST), and Comprehensive Clinical Assessments (CCA) in Guilford County. We utilize a variety of therapeutic interventions to assist families facing out-of-home placement, children reentering the family home, juvenile offenders, children and individuals with mental health challenges, developmental disabilities, individuals reintegrating into the community and individuals with substance abuse challenges.

Court, Police and Mediation Services

NCDPS AC-Juvenile Justice	www.ncdps.gov	Greensboro (336) 256-2250 High Point (336) 889-7623	Provides intake, probation and after care services to children and families involved in the juvenile court system.
Law Enforcement – Greensboro	www.greensboro-nc.gov/police	(336) 373-2222 (336) 373-1000	Works to safeguard lives and property; respectfully enforce the laws of the land and work cooperatively to lessen the impact of crime on the lives of residents and visitors to Greensboro.

Law Enforcement - High Point	www.high-point.net/police/index.cfm	(336) 887-7940	The High Point Police Department strives to improve the quality of life for those we serve by developing partnerships with the community based on a commitment to quality service.
Law Enforcement- Guilford County Sheriff	www.guilfordcountysheriff.com	(336) 641-3694	Guilford County Sheriff's Office is responsible for the protection of life and property, the investigation of criminal activities, the service of all civil processes, the enforcement of laws, the arrest of violators, the safekeeping of prisoners within Guilford County, and the security of courtrooms.
Community Service/Restitution	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 273-5667	For juveniles 10 to 16 years old referred by and through the juvenile court system. It provides youth with scheduled opportunities to work at human service and non-profit agencies to fulfill court-ordered community service and victim restitution sanctions.
Guilford County Day Reporting and Restitution Center (DRRC)	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 574-3167	Offers a structured program of services for male offenders 16 to 25 years old. It is designed to educate, treat, monitor, and supervise them to decreased the possibility of their re-offending. Services include on-site substance abuse evaluation and treatment recommendations, adult basic education and GED preparation, career development and job placement assistance, anger management, and referrals to human resource agencies that can assist clients to become self-sufficient. Judges sentence eligible offenders to DRC.

Guilford County Teen Court	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 275-3699	Provides trials for first-time offenders ages 8 to 15, pleading guilty to misdemeanors, who are referred by the criminal justice system, law enforcement, school resource officers (SRO's), etc; and ages 16 and 17 who are referred by School Resource Officers for offenses committed at schools. A peer jury develops sentencing contracts that include community service, victim restitution, curfews, and self-enrichment programs. Offenders who do not fulfill their contracts are sent to juvenile court for stricter sanctions and adult probationary supervision.
Life Skills/Conflict Resolution	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 275-3699	Provides 20 hours of classroom instruction for juveniles who are 8 to 17 years old and undisciplined or at risk of delinquency. Units of instruction include self-awareness, developing effective communication skills, anger management, causes of conflict, and ways to resolve conflict.
Mediation Services of Guilford County	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 273-5667	Provides mediation sessions for persons at least 11 years old who have disputes with others and are willing to participate in the mediation process. It allows people to talk without interruption, clarify sides of an issue without violence, hear how an incident has impacted their lives, and reach an agreement about resolving their conflict.

ParentTalk--One Step Further	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 275-3699	A six hour information forum for parents experiencing difficulties with their children at home or at school, as well as parents of children who are in or have just been released from the juvenile justice system and/or Guilford County Juvenile Detention Center or juvenile development center ("training school"). ParentTalk addresses family communication skills, conflict-resolution, and information or suggestions for parents dealing with youth exhibiting at-risk behaviors. ParentTalk sessions are conducted by a trained facilitator. ParentTalk is scheduled at locations throughout Guilford County. Parents may call to register for this program.
Pretrial Release Resource	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 275-3699	Provides offenders released from jail a structured program to address their needs while they await trial. Services include adult basic education and GED preparation as well as on-site attitude orientation classes, outpatient substance abuse counseling, career and job readiness classes, parenting workshops, anger management, and money management classes.
Mediation Services of Guilford County	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 273-5667	Provides mediation sessions for persons at least 11 years old who have disputes with others and are willing to participate in the mediation process. It allows people to talk without interruption, clarify sides of an issue without violence, hear how an incident has impacted their lives, and reach an agreement about resolving their conflict.

ParentTalk--One Step Further	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 275-3699	A six hour information forum for parents experiencing difficulties with their children at home or at school, as well as parents of children who are in or have just been released from the juvenile justice system and/or Guilford County Juvenile Detention Center or juvenile development center ("training school"). ParentTalk addresses family communication skills, conflict-resolution, and information or suggestions for parents dealing with youth exhibiting at-risk behaviors. ParentTalk sessions are conducted by a trained facilitator. ParentTalk is scheduled at locations throughout Guilford County. Parents may call to register for this program.
Sentencing Services	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 275-3699	Prepares written plans that assist the Court in making informed sentencing decisions for clients at least 16 years old who are charged with felonies and misdemeanors. Eligible clients have the possibility of being sentenced to an intermediate punishment or an active prison term.
One Step Further	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 275-3699	A program which allows juveniles and their families to work out their problems positively through unpaid community service, resolution training, mediation services and victim restitution.

Diverse & Special Needs

African Services Coalition	www.ascafrica.org	(336) 574-2677	NCASC provides a number of services at no cost to clients throughout North Carolina. The services offered include: Employment services and job upgrades for those meeting the eligibility criteria; Case management (serving as a liaison with service providers) for refugee families and asylees; Translation and acculturation assistance for new refugees and immigrants in the Triad area; Information and referrals in human services for new immigrants in the area of health and human services.
----------------------------	-------------------	----------------	--

Assistive Technology Resource Center—Greensboro	www.ncatp.org/	(336) 297-2180	The North Carolina Assistive Technology Program (NCATP) is a state and federally funded program that provides assistive technology services statewide to people of all ages and abilities. Assistive Technology (AT) is any type of equipment that helps people with disabilities or older individuals be more independent at home, school, work, leisure time, or in community life.
Center for New North Carolinians	http://cnnc.uncg.edu	(336) 334-5411	The Center for New North Carolinians operates to help refugees and immigrants in the area adjust to U.S. culture. Currently CNNC operates the Glen Haven Development Center which assists immigrant families through providing after school tutoring and assistance with English for newly arrived refugees and immigrants with the goal of improving school work and acculturation.
Cheshire Center	www.cheshirecenter.net	(336) 375-2240 1-800-360-1099	Cheshire Center, Inc. is the largest private clinic in the area providing Speech Therapy, Developmental Therapy (C.B.R.S.), Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy to a largely pediatric population.
Communication Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing	www.csdhh.org	Voice (336) 275-8878 TTY/Video Phone (336) 274-1461	Information on any issue related to deafness and hearing loss can be obtained at CSDHH. We offer educational presentations for groups, businesses or civic organizations that can be tailored to your specific needs. CSDHH advocates issues on individual and organizational levels. Examples of past advocacy projects are: Helping professionals establish policies for hiring interpreters, and finding assistive listening devices (ALDs) for public places. CSDHH can arrange an interpreter on a scheduled or emergency basis.

Family Support Network of Central Carolina	www.fsncc.org	(336) 832-6507	Family Support Network of Central Carolina serves families whose children have been diagnosed with a special need or chronic illness, or who have been born prematurely. The Family Support Network of Central Carolina (FSNCC) offers a variety of services for families of children with special needs. Whether your child has been recently diagnosed, or your family is new to the Triad, we can connect you with the information you need to support your child, access services, and join our community.
Gay Straight Advocates for Education	www.gsafeg.org	(336) 327-7499	Provides resources which address the educational, emotional, psychological, and spiritual needs and wants of gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender youth and their allies. GSAFE's program YouthSAFE is a safe, welcoming, confidential, regular social networking program for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Questioning youth in Guilford County.
Greensboro TEACCH (Treatment and Education of Autistic and related Communication-handicapped Children)	www.teacch.com/	(336) 334-5773	The Greensboro TEACCH Center serves individuals with autism in the piedmont region of North Carolina. Services include diagnostic evaluations, treatment planning and implementation, education, consultation, supported employment assistance, training opportunities and research.
Horsepower TLC	www.horsepower.org	(336) 931-1424	HORSEPOWER's mission is to promote and enhance the welfare of individuals with disabilities by providing a program of therapeutic, educational and recreational value, and further, to empower individuals who are mentally, physically, emotionally and/or socially challenged through the use of horses, while providing therapeutic benefits in a safe and controlled atmosphere.
Muscular Dystrophy Association of the Triad	greensboro@mdausa.org	(336) 856-1591	MDA's 200 local offices serve every community in the United States through a vast program of clinics, support groups, summer camps, equipment loans and much more.

National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ)	www.nccjtriad.org	(336) 272-0359	Sponsors youth-based Anytown, Different and the Same, The Green Circle, High School Leadership Training, and Partners for Inclusion programs. Focus on promoting diversity tolerance and combating racism.
National Multiple Sclerosis Society—Greensboro	http://ncc.nationalmssociety.org /	(336) 299-4136	Although MS is typically thought of as an adult-onset disease, some children and teens have been diagnosed. Young Persons with MS: A Network for Families with a Child or Teen with MS is a program that offers educational and psychosocial support for children and teens with MS and their families.
Parents, Families & Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG)	www.pflaggreensboro.org	Greensboro (336) 285-6088 High Point (336) 889-4549	Offers support, education, and advocacy for Lesbian and gay persons as well as their families and friends.
Salvation Army Angel Tree	www.salvationarmyusa.org	(336) 273-1366	Provides gifts for senior citizens and underprivileged children during the Christmas season.
Special Olympics	www.sonc.net	1-800-843-6276	Special Olympics provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.
The Arc	www.arcg.org www.arc-of-hp.com	Greensboro (336) 373-1076 High Point (336) 883-0653	Provides programs for children with mental retardation and their families.
Tristan's Quest, Inc.	www.tristansquest.com	(336) 547-7460	An organization dedicated to improving the quality of life for children and adolescents with emotional/behavioral challenges and their families through public and professional education, family support, and direct services.

Youth Unlimited	www.youthunlimited.cc	(336) 883-1361	Provides residential care and counseling services for adolescents with severe behavioral problems at school or home. Provides community-based programs in foster care, intensive in-home services, diagnostic assessment, day treatment, and community support.
-----------------	--	----------------	---

Early Childhood Education

Guilford Child Development	www.guilfordchilddevelopment.org	(336) 378-7700	Offers free pre-school (Head Start & More at Four) to income eligible families. Child must be 4 years of age on or before August 31st of current year.
Guilford County Department of Social Child Day Care Program	www.co.guilford.nc.us	(336) 641-3000	Provides subsidies for childcare to families who qualify.
Guilford County Schools	www.gcsnc.com	(336) 370-2329	Offers free pre-K programs. Child must be 4 years of age on or before August 31st of current year.

Employment & Training

American Red Cross serving the Piedmont Triad	www.redcross.org	1-800-REDCROSS	Adolecents (ages 11-14) can learn how to safely and responsibly care for children. Become a Certified Red Cross Baby sitter by taking our Babysitter's Training Course. Adolescents (ages 15+) can take the Lifeguard Training Course to become a certified lifeguard. For the next Babysitter's Training Course or Lifeguard Training Course, contact the chapter.
Crossroads: Pathways to Success, Inc.	www.crossroadspts.org	(336) 509-0073	Crossroads: Pathways to Success, Inc. is a Saturday program that helps young men plan a path toward a desired career. The strategy focuses on teaching in eight areas to position young people for success: Developing career objectives; Interview skills; Impression management; Resume development; Community service; Life skills; Drug prevention; Personal and professional etiquette
Job Corps	www.jobcorps.gov	(800) 733-5627	Free residential (in most cases) education and training program that helps students between the ages of 16 and 24 gain the experience they need to get a better job and take control of their lives.

Leadership Connections	www.leadershipconnectionsnc.org	(336) 790-8247	An award-winning, statewide educational program that targets the special needs of young women, ages 14-17, by providing experiences that foster active learning in a participative environment.
NC Division of Vocational Rehabilitation	ncdhhs.gov/dvrs/	Greensboro (336) 299-7337 High Point (336) 887-2686	Designed to assist persons with impairments secure gainful employment. Services include evaluation, job placement, training, and counseling.
NC Works Career Center	www.guilfordjoblink.com and www.ncworks.gov	Greensboro (336)373-5922 or (336) 334-5777 High Point (336) 882-4141	The Youth Program provides a comprehensive, integrated mix of services to young adults ages 16-24, to aid in strengthening the knowledge, skills and attitudes needed to obtain employment and participate in a productive workforce. These services include occupational skills training, employment/work readiness training, skills assessment and career readiness.
UnifourOne	www.unifouroc.org	(336) 541-8669	Changing Faces Youth Development Vocational Skills Program- Changing Faces Youth Development Vocational Skills Program serves youth ages 13-17 that are at risk of delinquency or have been adjudicated undisciplined or delinquent those have numerous barriers to employment. These barriers include current or past gang involvement, basic skills deficiency, school dropout, homeless, runaway, pregnant, parenting, youth with a disability or foster child.
Vocational Rehabilitation (Dept. of Social Services)	www.co.guilford.nc.us/government/socservices/	Greensboro (336) 641-6520 High Point (336) 845-7879 Under 21 High Point (336) 315-2016	Site for vocational rehabilitation for clients who are disabled and have the desire to seek meaningful training and employment that will help them function in the community, as they become independent citizens.

Faith Based Services

Catholic Social Services	www.cssnc.org	(336) 274-5577	CSS offers services including pregnancy support, counseling, and Latino services.
--------------------------	--	----------------	---

Jewish Family Services	www.shalomgreensboro.org/	(336) 852-4829	Offers information and Referral line, counseling, Resettlement Services, Financial Assistance, Goodwill Coupons, and the Jewish Community High School program.
Lutheran Family Services	www.lscarolinas.net	(336) 378-7881 or (336) 275-7295 (800) 435-7464	Seeks justice, healing, renewal, and enrichment for individuals and families through service, advocacy, and education.
Nurturing Youth & Developing Important Alternatives (NYDIA)—St. James Presbyterian Church	www.stjamespresby.org/nydia.htm	(336) 273-6658	Offers Nurturing Youth & Developing Important Alternatives (NYDIA) program, which helps young girls safely through the teen years through mentoring. Also focuses on pregnancy prevention and building self-esteem.
Piedmont Baptist Association Ministry Center	www.piedmontbaptist.org	(336) 275-7651	Provides ESL classes for native Spanish-speakers.
Presbyterian Counseling	www.presbyteriancounseling.org	(336) 288-1484	Provides a safe and confidential setting for people to heal emotionally, relationally and spirituality through affordable, competent psychotherapy and education. Welcomes clients of all faith traditions and respect the spirituality of each person.
Young Life	greensboro.younglife.org	(336) 834-0381	Helps youth establish a relationship with Jesus Christ. Works with high schools, holds weekly meetings, and has weekend camps weekends in the winter. Conducts trips to Mexico and Frontier Ranch in Colorado to build houses during spring break and for one week in the summer.

Health (also see Counseling, Mental & Behavioral Health)

Carolina Poison Center	www.ncpoisoncenter.org/	1-800-848-6946	Evaluations of extent of ingestion, referral to emergency room and/or mental health
Center for Behavioral Health and Wellness	www.ncat.edu/cbhw	(336) 285-2605	Provides clinical behavioral health services for people of all ages who have mental illnesses or substance abuse problems through the integration of best practice research, training, and technical assistance.
Cheshire Center	www.cheshirecenter.net	(336) 375-2240 1-800-360-1099	Cheshire Center, Inc. is the largest private clinic in the area providing Speech Therapy, Developmental Therapy (C.B.R.S.), Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy to a largely pediatric population.

Greensboro Child Response Initiative (CRI)	www.ncat.edu/academics/schools-colleges1/soe/hdsv/cbhw/special_projects.html	(336) 373-4827	CRI is a secondary prevention program of advocates, police officers and community providers working together to help and support the needs of children 0-18 and their families who have experienced any type of trauma or violence.
Guilford County Department of Public Health	www.co.guilford.nc.us/publichealth	(336) 641-7777	Promotes the growth and development of children by providing direct and community health services to eligible children and youth, birth to age 18.
HealthServe — Moses Cone	conehealth.com	(336) 271-5999	HealthServe Community Health Clinic provides primary healthcare to adults and families in the Greater Greensboro area through two locations. Individuals who do not have Medicaid and would like to be seen at our facilities must complete an eligibility screening prior to receiving services. To schedule an eligibility screening call the number provided.
High Point Regional Hospital	www.highpointregional.com/	(336) 878-6000	Emergency assessment services
Moses Cone Outpatient Clinic	conehealth.com	(336) 832-7272	Provides internal medicine, OB/GYN, and pediatric health care services. Accepts insurance, Medicaid, Medicare, and sliding scale payments.
Piedmont Health Services and Sickle Cell Agency	www.piedmonthhealthservices.org	(336) 274-1507	Provides outreach, education, screening and case management for people with high risk health problems including sickle cell disease and HIV/AIDS.
The Arc	www.arcg.org www.arc-of-hp.com	Greensboro (336) 373-1076 High Point (336) 883-0653	Provides programs for children with mental retardation and their families.
Triad Adult and Pediatric Medicine	www.tapmedicine.com	(336) 272-1050	Primary care (physicals and acute care) for youth ages birth to 21 years old.
Triad Health Project	www.triadhealthproject.com	Greensboro (336) 275-1654 High Point (336) 884-4116	Provides comprehensive HIV/AIDS case management, advocacy, limited financial assistance, food, transportation to medical appointments, and referrals to community resources. Coordinates support groups and offers individual counseling. Also provides HIV/AIDS education.

Life Skills

4-H	guilford.ces.ncsu.edu/	(336) 641-2400	4-H allows youth 5-18 years old to develop leadership, citizenship and community service lifeskills. 4-H is supported by NC State Universtiy and NC A&T State University, North Carolina's land grant universities. #GoPack #AggiePride
Boy Scouting: Old North State Council	www.bsaonsc.org	(336) 378-9166 or (800) 367-9166	Scouting program is designed to give youth a positive environment through recognition and advancement.
Boys & Girls Club of Greater High Point	www.hpclubs.org	(336) 882-2582	Provides targeted and results-oriented programs for disadvantaged youth, with a focus on Education and Career Development, Health and Life Skills, the Arts, Character and Leadership Development, and Sports, Fitness, and Recreation.
Family Life Council of Greater Greensboro- Merged with CHS	chsnc.org	(336) 333-6890	Provides accessible, high-quality and diverse programs, resources and advocacy for today's families, educators and community agencies.
Girl Scouting: Tarheel Triad Council	www.girlscoutsp2p.org	(336) 274-8491	Helps girls ages 5-17 develop to their fullest potential in order that they may become happy and resourceful young women.
Greensboro Youth Council	www.greensboro-nc.gov	(336) 373-2733	A leadership development organization for high school students.
Junior Achievement of Central North Carolina	centralncja.org	(336) 299-4339	School-based economic education programs teaching youth about business, the economy, the free enterprise system in America, how it works, and what their part can be in it.
Leadership Connections	www.leadershipconnectionsnc.org	(336) 790-8247	An award-winning, statewide educational program that targets the special needs of young women, ages 14-17, by providing experiences that foster active learning in a participative environment.
National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ)	www.nccjtriad.org	(336) 272-0359	Sponsors youth-based Anytown, Different and the Same, The Green Circle, High School Leadership Training, and Partners for Inclusion programs. Focus on promoting diversity tolerance and combating racism.

NC Cooperative Extension—Guilford County	www.ces.ncsu.edu/guilford/	(336)641-2400	Conducts educational programs in specialized areas such as housing, food selection/preparation, diet, nutrition and horticulture including school and community gardening. Sponsors Guilford County 4-H program for youth ages 5-18.
Life Skills/Conflict Resolution	www.onestepfurther.com	(336) 275-3699	Provides 20 hours of classroom instruction for juveniles who are 8 to 17 years old and undisciplined or at risk of delinquency. Units of instruction include self-awareness, developing effective communication skills, anger management, causes of conflict, and ways to resolve conflict.
PEAK Adventure Ministries	www.peakam.org	(336) 580-5311	PEAK provides leadership development, team development and conflict resolution training for student groups. Serving students from seventh through twelfth grades, we use experiences, challenge and adventure to teach relationship, community, acceptance and accountability. Services are available at the client's site or at our challenge course just north of Greensboro.
Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro	www.greensborobgc.org	(336) 235-0346 or (336) 273-5572	The Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro provides tutoring, computer training, sports education, homework help, and mentoring.
Teens Taking Action Peer Education Program/Planned Parenthood of South Atlantic	mary.connor.hill@ppsat.org	(336) 373-0678 ext. 6843	Teens Taking Action is an innovative and award winning peer education program. The TTA program empowers participants to make informed, responsible, lifelong decisions regarding sexuality and relationships. Once trained, peer educators go out into the community with their local health educator and present to other youth on various topics. Some of the program topics include: Sexually Transmitted Infection (STI) and HIV/AIDS prevention, Birth Control Options, Pregnancy Prevention and Abstinence, Self Esteem/Values, Healthy Dating Relationships, Peer Pressure, Alcohol and Drugs and other life skills.

UnifourOne	www.unifouroc.org	(336) 541-8669	Changing Faces Youth Development Life Skills Program-The Life Skills Program is for youth ages 12-17 that are at-risk of being involved in the juvenile court system. The life skills program will assist in addressing the concerns identified in the Needs Assessments for court involved youth in Guilford County by providing a holistic life skills program that will provide interventions to improve life skills, critical thinking skills, cognitive thinking, parenting youth skills, and decrease their level of involvement with other delinquent youth, all while providing them with a safe place to go that is neutral. the program focuses on education, teaching core man principles, integrity, decision making, honesty, sportsmanship, respect, goal setting, communication skills, leadership training and being money smart.
Win-Win Resolutions	www.winwinresolutions.org	(336) 230-1232	Reduces violence and prejudice in schools and communities by teaching conflict resolution and positive social skills through interactive drama presentation.
YMCA of Greensboro	www.ymcagreensboro.org	(336) 478- YMCA (336) 272-2131 (336) 882-YMCA	Seven locations offering recreational, physical fitness, athletic, educational, and after school programs.
YMCA of High Point	www.hpymca.org	(336) 869-0151 (336) 888-6800	Several locations offering programs and activities for children, adults and seniors. Programs include aerobics, cardiovascular exercising, adult sports, youth sports, youth summer camps and swimming.
YWCA of Greensboro	www.ywcagsonc.org	(336) 273-3461	Offers health and fitness services, educational workshops, skill development, and after school care.
YWCA of High Point	www.ywcahp.com	(336) 882-4126	Offers programs in health, fitness, and after school care. Serves all sectors of the community, including men, but places emphasis on programs for women and girls.

Mentoring

Communities in Schools of High Point	highpoint.communitiesinschools.org	(336) 883-6434	Provides career assessment and college access activities and support for 7th-12th graders. Students sign a pledge to be alcohol-, drug-, and crime-free and can participate in college trips, job shadowing, financial aid workshops, and scholarship searches. Many students have career mentors--volunteers who meet with the students once or twice per month--to explore careers.
Beauty Within, Inc. Mentoring Program	www.iambeautywithin.org	(336) 707-9904	Free mentoring program for girls ages 8-17
Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Piedmont	www.bbbscp.org	(336) 882-4167	Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Central Piedmont's mission is to help children reach their full potential through professionally supported, one-to-one relationships with measurable impact. We do this by placing a positive mentor in the lives of our youth who spend on average 2-5 hours a week for at least one year working with a child. This agency offers both school-based and community-based mentoring.
Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greensboro	www.youthfocus.org	(336) 378-9100	Mentoring for at risk youth ages 6-12.
Black & Hispanic Achievers	www.ymcagreensboro.org	(336) 272-2131	Black and Hispanic Achievers is a nationally recognized teen mentoring program for 8th-12th graders. The focus is to educate and expose youth to various career fields as well as promote and encourage teens to further their education to post secondary institutions. Youth have the opportunity to take company and college tours and participate in training and self-esteem sessions. The group meets on the 1st and 3rd Saturday of each month from 10:00am - 12:30pm.

The Black Suit Initiative	www.sparrowsnestgso.org		The Black Suit Initiative is an all male Pilot Program. The black suit initiative is designed to enhance the educational, social and emotional needs of young men living in the underserved communities in Northeast Greensboro. In a partnership with Teach for America and Guilford County Schools' teacher volunteers, young men are equipped with techniques to better prepare them for academic success. Youth are also given the opportunity to shadow some of Greensboro's most successful business owners and CEO's. Application process begins in October. Program runs through July.
BOTSO Mentors Program	www.winwinreolutions.org	(336) 230-1232	B.O.T.S.O. is dedicated to empowering male youth by exposing them to intensive programs of mentoring, academic advising, character – building education, arts, culture and discipline. At the core of B.O.T.S.O's mission is directing young male lives to positive outcomes so their future resembles not sheets of statistics but rather portfolios of success

BEST	www.bestmales.org	(336) 253-8537	BEST is a non profit faith-based organization that uses mentoring as its core activity. Activities are fundamentally based on 37 strong character principles to address the concerns pertaining to at-risk adolescent and young adult males, specifically ages 16-24. To create a strong support system for these young men, BEST also provides various other services for others through who may have close proximity with these young males. These services include evidence-based classes on parenting (fatherhood, behavior modification and teen parenting), tutorial (ABE/GED classes, and reading for parents of children from conception through middle school). BEST provides culturally enriched exposures, volunteer community service, as well as experiential career and entrepreneurial insight through apprenticeship, internships and on the job training.
Communities in Schools of Greater Greensboro	greensboro.communitiesinschools.org	(336) 691-1268	Mentoring to high school students at Dudley and Smith High Schools who are involved in Community in Schools programming.
The Chosen 50	www.thechosen50.org		The Chosen 50 was developed in response to the community's need to address the underserved population in Greensboro, NC. This program's purpose is to engage youth in leadership initiatives in an effort to prevent crime and drug activity and develop educational, artistic and character building skills to better prepare them for their transition to college or career. This program meets 2-3 Saturdays each month running concurrently with the school year. Application process begins in October. Program runs through July.

Empowered Girls NC	http://www.empoweredgirlsnc.org/	(336)790-2763	Empowered Girls NC mission is to enhance the quality of girls' lives by providing programming that builds integrity, respect and self-worth is the mission of Empowered Girls of North Carolina. Our primary goal is to empower girls to become successful young women that exemplify the sum of our quality programming and the experiences that they have received by being a part of this girl serving organization.
Journeys Mentoring Program (Foster Friends NC)	www.fosterfriendsnc.com	(336) 834-9919	JOURNEYS is a mentoring program designed for children ages 11-17 who are currently experiencing foster care and who need unconditional support and meaningful relationships with adult mentors.
LOTSO Mentors Program	www.winwinreolutions.org	(336) 230-1232	L.O.T.S.O. is dedicated to empowering female youth by exposing them to intensive programs of mentoring, academic advising, character – building education, arts, culture and discipline. At the core of L.O.T.S.O's mission is directing young female lives to positive outcomes so their future resembles not sheets of statistics but rather portfolios of success.
Wise Guys	http://www.wiseguysnc.org/	(336) 333-6890 x 230	Jóvenes Sabios is an interactive male responsibility program for Spanish speaking young men ages 11-17. It is a comprehensive 10-12 week workshop designed for the prevention of adolescent pregnancy. Jóvenes Sabios is the Spanish version of the Wise Guys program that has been taught in the Guilford County School System and to a number of community groups since 1990. The Spanish program is based on a translation and adaptation of the English manual.

Lunch Buddy Program	www.gcsnc.com	See Description	Through this program a caring, responsible adult is paired with a child who may need a role model or some extra attention. Lunch Buddies eat lunch with their student buddy once per week to develop friendships that could last for years. For more information contact the Lunch Buddy Coordinator located at each school in GCS.
NARIOP (New Light At-Risk Intergenerational Outreach Program)—New Light Baptist Church	www1.gcsnc.com/nariop/index.htm	(336) 273-9671	An alternative day program and alternative school for suspended youth in Guilford County Schools.
Nurturing Youth Developing Important Alternatives—St. James Presbyterian Church	www.stjamespresby.org/nydia.htm	(336) 273-6658	NYDIA provides adolescent girls with opportunities for building self-esteem through mentoring relationships, educational and cultural activities and programs that nurture the total person. Middle school girls enter NYDIA at grade six and are expected to remain in the program through the eighth grade. Sixth graders are referred to NYDIA by school counselors and parents, and they may refer themselves. As they enter into the project, they are matched with an adult female college student who serves as a mentor, role model, and friend. Each pair (mentor and mentee) participates in various educational, cultural, and recreational activities as well as any special time they choose to spend together away from the group.

Shield Mentor Program	www.shieldyouth.com	(336) 337-2771	The SHIELD Mentor Program (SHIELD) Mentoring Model is a facilitates curriculum-based, year-long leadership building intensive program focused on four-stage sessions: Strengthen, Help, Inspire and Encourage Leadership Development. Together, youth and adults participate in interactive workshops and team building exercises taht focus on a variety of leadership development topics to prevent youth from making poor life decisions, engage them into constructive activiities and enhance a positive future through an environment that is exciting, inspirational, engaging and educational.
TEEN MOM Program—YWCA High Point	www.ywcahp.com/ProgramYouth.htm	(336) 882-4126	The Teen Mom program works with teenage mothers under the age 18, who are pregnant or parenting for the first time. The program aims to strengthen or establish individual support systems and preserve family stability; develop effective parenting skills; and prevention of substantiated child abuse, neglect, or dependency reports. Mentors provide services to pregnant and parenting adolescents which leads to personal self-sufficiency and economic support for themselves.
Teen Parent Mentor Program—YWCA Greensboro	www.ywca.org/greensboro	(336) 273-3461 ext. 115	TPMP offers educational activities and programs, the formation of a supportive relationship with an adult mentor, positive peer interactions and staff interventions. This program integrates several critical components: the pursuit of goals including personal, education and career, the development of positive parenting skills, improved access to community services and participation in health, fitness and wellness activities. Monthly meetings and special events are held for both teen moms and their mentors.

UnifourOne	www.unifouroc.org	(336) 541-8669	Changing Faces Youth Development Mentoring Program-The Changing Faces Mentoring Program works with youth ages 6-17, who are at risk of delinquency or have been adjudicated undisciplined or delinquent. Youths are paired with a caring adult mentor who offers guidance, support, and encouragement aimed at developing the competence and character of mentee. Mentors work with parents, juvenile court judges, and other counselors to ensure that each youth is fulfilling their full potential.
Wise Guys—Family Life Council	www.wiseguysnc.org/	(336) 333-6890 x237	A program for high school and college age males to train them to become mentors and facilitators for the Wise Guys program, a multi-session course for teen males that aims to prevent teen pregnancy and STD's, and to develop healthy relationships. Peer Mentors are male students from local colleges and universities who co-facilitate classes for teen males with Family Life Council Wise Guys Educators.

Parenting & Family Development

Family Life Council of Greater Greensboro	chsnc.org	(336) 333-6890	Focuses on family life and parent education. Provides programs for parenting, marriage education, and youth programs
Family Service of the Piedmont	familyservices-piedmont.org	(336) 387-6161	Focused on building safe and healthy families and strong communities by providing counseling, victim services, prevention services, and community education.

Grandparents Raising Grandchildren Support Program	www.senior-resources-guilford.org/	High Point and Jamestown (336) 884-4816 All other areas (336) 373-4816	The Grandparents Raising Grandchildren Support Program is a collaborative effort of Senior Resources of Guilford and the YWCA's of Greensboro and High Point. The program offers grandparents and other relative caregivers age 55 and over a variety of FREE support options including monthly lunch and learn and support group meetings, quarterly evening support group meetings, resource and referral information and a yearly retreat.
Lutheran Family Services	lscarolinas.net	(336) 378-7881 (336) 275-7295	Seeks justice, healing, renewal, and enrichment for individuals and families through service, advocacy, and education.
WWCG Birthing	www.wwcgbirthing.com	(336) 517-7897	Childbirth Education Classes; Assistance Developing Your Birth Preference Statement; Information About Birthing Options; Accompaniment to Prenatal Visits; Parenting Support Groups; Birth Blessings/Baby Shower Planning; Full Service Labor Support; Continuous Companionship; Comfort Measures/Labor Management Techniques; Guided Breathing and Visualization Techniquet; Reassure, Aid and Involve the Partner in the Labor Process; Advocate on Mother's Behalf; Breastfeeding Assistance; Tips and Pointers for a Smooth Transition into Family Life; Light Housekeeping adn Errands; Sibling Sharing Sessions; Meal Preparation

Recreation & Extracurricular Activities

ArtQuest	www.greenhillcenter.org/	(336) 333-7460	ArtQuest is Green Hill Center's hands-on art gallery for children and families, with interactive exhibits, open art studio activities, camps, workshops, birthday parties, and more! At ArtQuest families have the opportunity to discover the excitement of making art together. Although ArtQuest is for families every day, each Wednesday evening from 5 -7 pm is Family Night and open free to the public.
----------	--	----------------	---

Blandwood Mansion	www.preservationgreensboro.org	(336) 272-5003	Blandwood , home of former North Carolina Governor John Motley Morehead, is a treasure of architectural and historical significance located in the heart of downtown Greensboro. The mansion is a National Historic Landmark and is the oldest example of Italian villa architecture in the United States. It is operated as a house museum by Preservation Greensboro, Inc. Admission Charged.
Boys & Girls Club of Greater High Point	www.hpclubs.org	(336) 882-2582	Provides targeted and results-oriented programs for disadvantaged youth, with a focus on Education and Career Development, Health and Life Skills, the Arts, Character and Leadership Development, and Sports, Fitness, and Recreation.
City Arts Classes	www.city-arts.org	(336) 373-2026	City Arts offers classes in dance, drama, music and visual arts to all ages. Call or visit website for more information and class schedules.
City Parks and Recreation — Greensboro	www.greensboro-nc.gov	(336) 373-2574 (336) 373-2489	The mission of the Greensboro Parks & Recreation Department is to provide a diversity of year-round leisure opportunities through open space, park settings, recreational facilities and programs for all citizens of Greensboro.
City Parks and Recreation—High Point	www.high-point.net/pr/index.cfm	(336) 883-3469	The Parks & Recreation Department strives to provide quality, wholesome indoor and outdoor recreation and leisure activities for the citizens of High Point.
Community Theater of Greensboro	www.ctgso.org	(336) 333-7470	CTG also hosts dozens of classes, camps, and workshops for children, teens, adults, and seniors.
Greensboro Children's Museum	www.gcmuseum.com	(336) 574-2898	The Greensboro Children's Museum is a hands-on, interactive, and educational play place for children ages 0-10 years and their families. Visitors learn while they play, touch, explore and discover in a variety of "Our Town" exhibits that have been created to stimulate children's imagination and to provide rich play experiences.

Greensboro Historical Museum	www.greensborohistory.org	(336) 373-2043	Here you'll discover first hand the rich history of the Piedmont area. The museum's 17,000 square feet of exhibition space offers hours of entertaining, educational enjoyment. Admission, tours, and parking are free.
Greensboro Public Library	www.greensborolibrary.org	(336) 373-2471	Greensboro Public Library's 8 locations provide educational and entertainment opportunities for children, teens and adults through free programs and events, informational resources and a wide selection of reading materials.
High Point Museum	www.highpointmuseum.org	(336) 885-1859	Featuring exciting exhibits, hands-on programs and tours, and special members-only events, the museum gives you a peek into what life was like in High Point from its early days as a backcountry community to its present days as the International Home Furnishings Capital of the World. Admission is free.
High Point Public Library	www.highpointpubliclibrary.com	(336) 883-3660
Castle McCulloch Gold Mill	www.castlemcculloch.com	(336) 887-2206	Tours of McCulloch Gold Mill are sponsored by the McCulloch Foundation and are fun for families, students, seniors, and businesses! The Gold and Gem panning activities are exciting, educational, and an overall great group adventure! Plan to spend your field trips, birthday parties, or other kids activities at this unique and historic NC Gold Panning treasure.
Mendenhall Plantation	www.mendenhallplantation.org/	(336) 454-3819	A visit to the Mendenhall Plantation shows students that there were dissenters to slavery in antebellum North Carolina. Buildings on the property include the main house, an old school house, the Madison Lindsay House and Medical School, a spring house, and a barn. There is also a restored wagon that may have been used to help runaway slaves.
Natural Science Center	www.natsci.org	(336) 288-3769	Home to Animal Discovery Zoological Park and the OmniSphere Theater. Offers educational workshops, summer camps, and birthday parties.

Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro	www.greensborobgc.org	(336) 274-1509	The Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro provides tutoring, computer training, sports education, homework help, and mentoring.
Social Designs Change Institute Youth Exchange	www.socialdesignsconsulting.com	(252) 532-5243	The Change Institute Youth Exchange program is an intensive global leadership training and study abroad opportunity, allowing cultural exchange between students in Greensboro and Barbados. The Institute runs from July 6th-17th
The Center for Education, Imagination and the Natural World at Timberlake Farm	beholdnature.org	(336) 449-0612	The Center offers a wide range of programs for children and young adults to foster this human/earth relationship including afterschool and summer programs for children.
The Volunteer Center of Greensboro	www.volunteergso.org	(336) 373-1633	The Volunteer Center is an information hub with volunteer opportunities from across the area. Offers opportunities just for teens, projects that are suitable for groups of people, special holiday opportunities, and a calendar of one-day or short-term events.
YMCA of Greensboro	www.ymcagreensboro.org	(336) 478- YMCA (336) 272-2131 (336) 882-YMCA	Seven locations offering recreational, physical fitness, athletic, educational, and after school programs.
YMCA of High Point	www.hpymca.org	(336) 869-0151 (336) 888-6800	Several locations offering programs and activities for children, adults and seniors. Programs include aerobics, cardiovascular exercising, adult sports, youth sports, youth summer camps and swimming.
YWCA of Greensboro	www.ywcagsonc.org	(336) 273-3461	Offers health and fitness services, educational workshops, skill development, and after school care.
YWCA of High Point	www.ywcahp.com	(336) 882-4126	Offers programs in health, fitness, and after school care. Serves all sectors of the community, including men, but places emphasis on programs for women and girls.

Substance Abuse

Adolescent Substance Abuse Program—Youth Focus	www.youthfocus.org	(336) 333-6853	Combines residential services with intensive counseling, educational programming, and attendance at local self-help groups (AA and NA).
--	--	----------------	---

Al-Anon and Alateen	www.greensboroalanon.org	(800) 449-1287	Provides information on daily support group meeting times and locations.
Alcohol and Drug Services of Guilford, Inc.	www.adsyes.org	Greensboro (336) 333-6860 High Point (336) 882-2125	Provides substance abuse prevention and early intervention for youth 3-17 as well as education services for parents, college students and the general community. Treatment and counseling services (outpatient and narcotic treatment) are available for adults 18 years old and older to residents of Guilford County and surrounding areas.
Set Up Ministries	diannsetupministries@gmail.com	(336) 346-9690	Dedicated to supporting the wellness of individuals who are affected by, or at risk mental health and substance use disorders through cultivation of strengths toward promoting recovery. We provide Copeland Center Wellness Recovery Action Plan (WRAP) Level 1 facilitation and other trainings. We also provide NC Certified Peer Support also.

Teen Pregnancy

Partners for Healthy Youth	partners4healthyyouth.org	(336) 274-2217	Works to reduce adolescent pregnancy by involving all sectors of the community in prevention initiatives.
Piedmont Health Services and Sickle Cell Agency	www.piedmonthhealthservices.org	(336) 274-1507	Provides outreach, education, screening and case management for people with high risk health problems including sickle cell disease and HIV/AIDS.
Planned Parenthood of South Atlantic	www.ppsat.org	(336) 373-0678	Provide GYN services for youth and adults. Birth control options, STD/HIV testing, gynecological exams, pregnancy testing, etc. We accept insurance, medicaid or self pay (based on income level and family size)
Room at the Inn of the Triad	www.roominn.org	(336) 996-3788	Non-denominational licensed maternity home that provides shelter, food, clothing, case management, in-house daycare, transportation and counseling for homeless, single, pregnant women and their children.

TEEN MOM Program—YWCA High Point	www.ywcahp.com/ProgramYouth.htm	(336) 882-4126	The Teen Mom program works with teenage mothers under the age 18, who are pregnant or parenting for the first time. The program aims to strengthen or establish individual support systems and preserve family stability; develop effective parenting skills; and prevention of substantiated child abuse, neglect, or dependency reports. Mentors provide services to pregnant and parenting adolescents which leads to personal self-sufficiency and economic support for themselves.
Teen Parent Mentor Program—YWCA Greensboro	www.ywca.org/greensboro	(336) 273-3461 ext. 115	TPMP offers educational activities and programs, the formation of a supportive relationship with an adult mentor, positive peer interactions and staff interventions. This program integrates several critical components: the pursuit of goals including personal, education and career, the development of positive parenting skills, improved access to community services and participation in health, fitness and wellness activities. Monthly meetings and special events are held for both teen moms and their mentors.
Thriving at Three—United Way of Greater Greensboro	unitedwaygso.org	(336) 378-6600	Thriving at Three is a United Way of Greater Greensboro community collaboration with a simple premise: children who are healthy, physically and emotionally, by age three are more likely to be successful in school and in life. Offers resource guide of services for expectant and new moms in Guilford County.
Transitional Living Program—Youth Focus	www.youthfocus.org	Greensboro (336) 273-4687 High Point (336) 882-1662	The Youth Focus Transitional Living Program serves young women ages 16 to 21 who are homeless and who, because of their special needs, require additional assistance to allow them to achieve independence.
YWCA of Greensboro	www.ywcagsonc.org	(336) 273-3461	Offers health and fitness services, educational workshops, skill development, and after school care.

YWCA of High Point	www.ywcahp.com	(336) 882-4126	Offers programs in health, fitness, and after school care. Serves all sectors of the community, including men, but places emphasis on programs for women and girls.
--------------------	----------------	----------------	---

Tutoring & Academic Support
--	--	--	--

A+ Tutoring		(336) 288-5050	Serves grades K12; Available mornings, afternoons, evenings, and weekends.
Academic Development Services	www.academicdevelopment.com	(336) 288-3098	Serves K-College; Includes ADHD, learning disabilities, gifted, and college prep. Offers test prep (with the exception of EOGs and EOCs).
Boys & Girls Club of Greater High Point	www.hpclubs.org	(336) 882-2582	Provides targeted and results-oriented programs for disadvantaged youth, with a focus on Education and Career Development, Health and Life Skills, the Arts, Character and Leadership Development, and Sports, Fitness, and Recreation.
Communities in Schools of Greater Greensboro	greensboro.communitiesinschools.org	(336) 691-1268	Offers tutoring, college planning, college visits, application and financial aid application assistance.
Communities in Schools of High Point	highpoint.communitiesinschools.org	(336) 883-6434	Provides career assessment and college access activities and support for 7th-12th graders. Students sign a pledge to be alcohol-, drug-, and crime-free and can participate in college trips, job shadowing, financial aid workshops, and scholarship searches. Many students have career mentors--volunteers who meet with the students once or twice per month--to explore careers.
Greensboro Public Library	www.greensboro-nc.gov	(336) 373-2471	Offers free on-line tutoring in all subjects everyday from 2-10 PM. Also offers resources for college test prep.
Guilford County Schools Homework Hotline		Greensboro & High Point (336) 333-6888 Colfax (336) 724-1362 Gibsonville (336) 449-5509	The GCS Homework Hotline provides homework assistance by telephone for kindergarten through 12th grade students four days per week from August through May. There is no charge for the service and calls are toll-free from all parts of Guilford County. All calls are confidential and answered by certified GCS teachers. The hours are from 4:30 to 8:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday (except on Holidays and Teacher Workdays).
High Point Public Library	www.highpointpubliclibrary.com	(336) 883-3660	Offers free on-line tutoring in all subjects. Also offers resources for college test prep.
Huntington Learning Center	greensboro.huntingtonlearning.com	(336) 288-7979	Tests students to pinpoint educational problems and provides tutoring in reading, phonics, study skills, math and SAT/ACT prep.

Kumon	www.kumon.com	Greensboro (336) 545-3990 Jamestown (336) 855-6264	Kumon is an international after-school math and reading program that employs a unique learning method designed to help each child develop the skills needed to perform to his or her full potential.
Pupils Ask, Teachers Help	pathwhelp.org		We offer 100% FREE internet based solutions to help parents and students with homework or other school related questions. We offer multiple methods to obtain help, from online message boards (forums), to full website pages, to email support, to live chat with real teachers in almost every subject available.
Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro	www.greensborobgc.org	(336) 274-1509	The Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro provides tutoring, computer training, sports education, homework help, and mentoring.
Saturday Academy GAMSEC	gamsec@ncat.edu	(336) 256-0284	Serves over 500 students from middle and high schools in the Greensboro area (Guilford, Rockingham, Alamance-Burlington, and Caswell, Davidson, and Randolph counties). The core components of the program include the university-based Saturday Academy Program, Summer Scholars Program, Parent Information and Development Program, Teacher In-service, and administration of the College Board PSAT (October) and SAT (December, January, April, and June). The school-based Academic Enrichment Program consists of a lead-teacher and academic clubs for excellence for the students.
Smart Kids TLC		(336) 255-5588	Tutoring is available in any course which requires reading, studying and test-taking.
Sylvan Learning Center	www.tutoring.sylvanlearning.com	1-866-228-4023	Provides personalized instruction to students of all ages and skill levels
The Piedmont School	www.thepiedmontschool.com	(336) 883-0992	Non-Profit organization providing a unique, essential service to children in our community with learning disabilities and/or AD(H)D; Ages 6-Adult
The Spirit of Excellence Tutorial Program—Black Child Development Institute	www.blackchilddevelopment.org	(336) 230-2138	The Spirit of Excellence Tutorial Program is a multifaceted academic enrichment program designed to improve performance of participating Guilford County School students in grades one through twelve. Spirit of Excellence operates ten tutorial sites throughout Greensboro, all located in public places including churches, public housing communities, branches of the Greensboro Public Library, the campus of North Carolina A & T State University, and the Hayes Taylor YMCA. A special component of the tutorial program is "The Algebra Project," a tutorial site devoted to meeting the needs of students in higher math courses such as algebra, geometry, and trigonometry.

Tristan's Quest, Inc.	www.tristansquest.com	(336) 547-7460	Tristan's Quest serves children and youth ages 3-21 with a variety of social, emotional, behavioral and academic needs, as well as their families. Diagnoses of children and youth we serve include attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), fetal alcohol spectrum disorders (FASD), sensory processing disorder (SPD), autism spectrum disorder (ASD), Asperger's syndrome, bipolar disorder, pervasive developmental delay (PDD), depression, anxiety, genetic and chromosomal disorders, and general behavioral and social concerns. Some have no official diagnoses. Currently we offer a variety of services including 1:1 developmental consultations; 1:1 tutoring /academic support, including enrichment, remediation and study skills/organizational skills; small group classes teaching anger management, social skills, bully-proofing, and making and keeping friends for children and youth (pre-school-age through high school); parent support and education; social opportunities for middle and high school teens with high functioning autism or students who need to build stronger social interaction skills; and a Saturday morning Lego social group for elementary school
Tutor.Com	www.tutor.com	(800) 411-1970	Online resource for students, families and business professionals to connect to one of our expert tutors, teachers, or professional librarians online.
Educational Partnership Services/PCG Education	educationalpartnerships.net	(888) 826-1250	Network of Certified Teachers, professors, business leaders, retired professionals, recent graduates, university students, and others who are committed to assisting K-12 students succeed in the classroom and in life.

Housing Assistance
Greensboro Housing Coalition	www.greensborohousingcoalition.com	(336) 691-9521	To advocate for decent, affordable housing for low and moderate income people and those with special needs.
Greensboro Housing Counseling Service (GHCS).	www.greensboro-nc.gov	(336) 373-4146	The Greensboro Affordable Home Loan Initiative is a program that provides homebuyer counseling, education, and financial assistance to low and moderate income first-time Greensboro homebuyers
Greensboro Housing Authority (GHA)	www.gha-nc.org	(336) 271-3368 or (336) 275-8501	The mission of the Greensboro Housing Authority is to provide safe, quality, affordable housing to low-income families, elderly and the disabled in the Greensboro community; to maintain a secure community environment; and to encourage personal responsibility and upward mobility of residents while maintaining the fiscal integrity of the agency.

Housing Authority of the City of High Point	www.hpha.net/	(336) 887-2661	Our Mission is to provide eligible families and individuals with adequate and affordable housing, economic advancement, and homeownership opportunities -- in a safe, drug-free, suitable, living environment -- without discrimination.
Transitional Living Services - Facilities in Greensboro and High Point	www.youthfocus.org	(336) 333-6853	Serves women ages 18 to 21 who are homeless and require additional assistance to allow them to achieve independence. Provides services exclusively to young women who are pregnant or parenting a young child or other females in need of transitional living services.

Other Services

Guilford County School Social Worker	gcsnc.com	(336) 370-2329 or call your school office	School social workers can help in a variety of situations where students may experience social, behavioral, cultural, medical, emotional, physical, legal or psychological difficulties. Social workers are to maintain privacy and confidentiality. School staff may make referrals by completing a School Social Services Referral Form, which is available at the school.
Guilford Education Alliance	www.guilfordeducationalliance.org	(336) 841-4332	Provides an abundance of resources and information for parents and teachers, including (but not limited to) school readiness tools, information on No Child Left Behind, and a Community Guide to Understanding School Budgets.