Loose Leaf Program Now Underway

The City's annual Loose Leaf Collection Program is now in effect until January 26, 2013. Learn more at www.greensboro-nc.gov/Leaves.

Leaves that are curbside by:

- November 13 will be picked up by December 21.
- December 26 will be picked up by January 26, 2013.

It's easy to use the Leaf Collection Program. Follow these tips:

- Rake leaves to the edge of your yard behind the curb, not in the street.

- Remove sticks, rocks, and other debris that may damage City equipment.
- Do not park vehicles on, in front of, or near leaves.

Visit the City's interactive map at www.greensboro-nc.gov/LeafCollection to see if the trucks are near your neighborhood yet.

Pay City Water Bills by Phone

You can now pay your City water bills and access your account information over the phone by calling 373-IPAY (4729). The system, called City Pay, is one of several ways you can pay water bills.

By calling 373-IPAY (4729), you can pay the full balance on your bill using a valid debit or credit card and get a confirmation of the payment.

All you need to start the process is your water bill account number, found at the top of your bill or on your bill stub. Learn more at www.greensboro-nc.gov/PayWaterBill.

Be Safe During the Holidays

Visiting family and friends during the holidays? If so, make sure your home is safe while you are away and your travel and shopping experiences are drama-free. Senior Games & SilverArts Registration Begins February Registration for the 2013 Greater Greensboro Senior Games and SilverArts begins February for seniors 55 years and over in Guilford County and surrounding areas. Competition includes a variety of sporting events as well as the performing, literary, heritage and visual arts. Registration packets are available at Smith Senior Center, 2401 Fairview St. For more information, call the Greensboro Seniors' Unit at 375-2237.

statesman, author and activist. The commission, which is an arm of the City's Human Relations Department, is seeking sponsors to help commemorate King's legacy and to show commitment to diversity, inclusion and human rights.

To recognize outstanding community leaders who embody the spirit of King's dream, the commission is also awarding one adult and one student a 2013 Human Relations Award. This new honor recognizes outstanding community service.

For more information about the event, how to become a sponsor, purchase tickets to attend, and nominate someone for the award, visit www.gsomlkbreakfast.org or call Marion Davis at 373-2038.

Piedmont Winterfest Returns to Festival Park

Now through January 27, 2013, WFMY News 2 Piedmont Winterfest offers public ice skating and special events at Festival Park in downtown Greensboro. This year, the rink has been expanded to accommodate more skaters and a 100-foot ice slide has been added to the park.

Admission is $9 per person. Special rates are $7 on discount days and for groups of 20 or more. A season pass is $75. For information on skate times, rental opportunities and special events, visit www.PiedmontWinterfest.com.

City Begins Mattress Collection Pilot Program

The City has begun a one-year pilot program with Mattress GO Round to collect used mattresses and box springs.

Call the City's Contact Center at 373-CITY (2489) to request a pick-up by the company or drop off your old item to its site at 1601-A Yanceyville St.

The pilot program is expected to save the City money by reducing bulk collection pick-up items. It also means less bulk waste in the landfill because Mattress GO Round repairs, sanitizes and rebuilds the used mattresses for resale. For more information, call 373-CITY.
