

EDUCATE, ENRICH, INSPIRE

2018 SPEAKER SERIES FOR YOUTH LEADERS

2nd Tuesday of every month

9:30 - 11 am

Parks & Recreation Headquarters • 1001 4th Street

Join us for learning, networking, collaboration, and FUN in the coming months. Information and registration links to come monthly, but for specific questions, contact Michelle Gill-Moffat at michelle.gill-moffat@greensboro-nc.gov.

SAVE
THE DATE

JAN 09

Get Ready Guilford: Galvanizing the Community So Each Child is Ready for Kindergarten
Mary Herbenick • Executive Director, Ready for School, Ready for Life

FEB 13

The Role of School Resource and Community Officers in the Lives of Youth
Sergeant Ryan Todd & Captain Renae G. Sigmon • Greensboro Police Department

MAR 13

The Importance of Inclusive Programming
Sharon Williams, CPRP • Adaptive and Inclusive Recreation Coordinator, Greensboro Parks and Recreation

APR 10

The Power of your Passion: Why your Influence Positively Impacts our Community
K.D. Wilson • Empowerment Speaker & Life Coach

MAY 08

Promoting Healthy Relationships for Teens: Resources from the Healthy Relationships Initiative
Christine Murray • Director, Healthy Relationships Initiative

JUN 12

Get your Teens Leadership-Lit: 3 Principles Challenging Teens to Grow in Leadership
Tony Casas • Wise Guys Youth Education Leader

AUG 14

Capturing their Head and Heart: The Importance of Caring for, Cultivating and Coaching Young People
Maria-Elena Surprenant • Surprenant Dance, Owner

SEP 11

UWGG Mentoring Matters: Why our Youth Need Positive Role Models to be Successful
Traci McLemore, MHS • Senior Manager, Community Impact Initiatives United Way of Greater Greensboro and Frank McCain • Vice President of Community Investment & Impact

OCT 09

Lock Your Meds: Understanding the Opioid Epidemic and Prevention Efforts
Angela Maxwell, MS, CSAPC, ICPS • Prevention and Early Intervention Services Director Alcohol and Drug Services

NOV 13

The Impact of Trauma and Violence on Youth
Dr. Kelly Graves, PhD. • Co-Founder and Executive Director of the Kellin Foundation

DEC 11

Teen Volunteers and Professional Development: A Unique Opportunity
Jasia Stevenson, Greensboro Youth Council Director, GSO Parks and Recreation

GREENSBORO
PARKS & RECREATION