CITY OF GREENSBORO BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS PROCESS AT A GLANCE

Overview:

Section 2-136 of the Greensboro Code of Ordinances provides, “it is the policy of the City Council of the City of Greensboro to select citizens from the entire community to serve on boards or commissions taking into consideration gender, race and residence on a geographical basis”.

Section 2-136 further provides it is “the intent to select members to boards and commissions on an equifir and proportionate basis representing each of the five (5) council districts and each of the three (3) at-large seats and the office of the mayor”. The Greensboro City Council are committed to promoting a culture of diversity and equity throughout our city, therefore we encourage individuals with diverse backgrounds and experiences to apply for our committees. Having a diverse board/commission is critically important to us as it provide a wealth of experience, expertise, and perspectives.

City Council adopted a Resolution to Re-organize the appointment procedure for the City of Greensboro Boards and Commissions at the March 14, 2016 meeting of Council.

A motion was unanimously adopted at the June 6, 2017 meeting of Council that there is no requirement for names to be added to the boards and commissions’ data bank. At each Councilperson’s discretion, however, names of individuals who wish to be considered for service may still be added to the data bank during an official Council meeting.

City Council adopted a Resolution to set out procedures of attendance and code of conduct for all boards and commissions at the April 16, 2019 meeting of Council.

At the July 21, 2020 meeting, the City Council adopted Ordinance # 20-099, which eliminated the Planning Board by shifting their duties to the Board of Adjustment, the Zoning Commission, and the Technical Review Committee.

At the September 15, 2020, City Council adopted a resolution to rescind resolution #18-0533 regarding the Greensboro Criminal Justice Advisory Commission (GCJAC) in order to streamline said procedures for a fair, equal and transparent system. Said resolution combined the GCJAC and the Police Community Review Board (PCRB) into one entity, to be called the GCJAC.

All boards and commissions shall act in accordance with the authority granted to them through applicable state law, charter provision, and/or directives and policies of the City Council.

All boards and commissions shall follow the procedures of conduct as set out in this handbook. All adopted board or commission Bylaws must be forwarded and remain on file in the City Clerk’s office.

BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS HANDBOOK

All City boards, commissions shall comply with the North Carolina Open Meetings Law.

“Boards and commissions with memberships up to and including 9 members shall have no more than 2 appointments per council seat, and boards with membership of 10 or more members shall have no more than 3 appointments per council seat unless exemptions apply. Exemptions to this policy can occur in circumstances when a board requires particular appointments (such as Historic Preservation Commission) or upon the consent of a Councilmember whose district may become underrepresented as a result of a desired appointment. In the event a board is over-represented in a district, and if the redistribution of appointments doesn’t balance the appointments, that situation will be resolved through attrition.”

All applicants must reside inside the city limits of Greensboro to be considered for service on a City board or commission, excluding boards and commission with exceptions such as: Firefighters Relief Fund, Greensboro Housing Authority, Greensboro Public Library Board of Trustees, Guilford City/County Insurance Advisory Commission, Guilford County Historic Properties Commission, Piedmont Triad Airport Authority, Piedmont Triad Regional Water Authority, and the Greensboro/Guilford Tourism Development Authority.

Once the City of Greensboro is no longer the primary residency for an appointee, they are no longer eligible to serve on the appointed board/commission. When an appointee provides notification to staff/City Clerk of a change in residency, the seat for that board/commission shall be vacated immediately.

If the board/commission member obligated to live within the City of Greensboro contests that their new property located outside of Greensboro is not a primary residency, but a second or vacation home, the issue of whether the member’s residency has changed should be submitted to the City Clerk to forward for Council consideration.

Please note, there are boards/commissions that allow for outside City limit representation, so these boards/commissions are excluded from this rule (Airport Authority, Firefighter Relief Fund Board, GSO Housing Authority, GC Historic Properties Commission, Insurance Advisory Committee, Library Board of Trustees, Piedmont Triad Regional Water Authority, and Tourism Development Authority).

All applicants are required to fill out the interest form, attach a copy of a resume or bio, and send it to the City Clerk’s Office.

The City Clerk’s Office provides to members of the Council at the second regular meeting of each month updated information concerning vacancies on City boards and commissions, a copy of the data bank listing the names of Greensboro citizens who have expressed an interest in serving on a board or commission, and a roster of current board and commission members.

BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS HANDBOOK

Attendance Policy:

Volunteers are essential to the City of Greensboro Boards and Commissions. Members are asked to arrive on time and commit to attend the entire meeting. If a member must arrive late or leave early, please make arrangements in advance with the Chair. Members are to call, text, or email the Chair at least 24-hours in advance of known absences. In the event of an emergency, such as an illness, please contact the Chair as soon as practical, with an explanation.

Appointees will be allowed 3 unexcused absences per rolling 12 month period (to coincide with term), after which the appointee will be subject to dismissal. A Councilmember who has appointed a citizen to serve accepts responsibility for the appointment. If there is a problem with attendance or performance of the appointee, the appointing Councilmember shall be so informed and shall be responsible to take the necessary steps to remedy the situation.

Excused absences are granted by the board or commission based only on (1) written medical justification signed by a duly authorized Doctor of Medicine or (2) due to a family death, emergency, or illness.

- After the first unexcused absence, the Chair will submit a written (email) notice to the member, cc: to the staff liaison.
- After the second unexcused absence, the Chair will submit a written notice (email) to the member, cc: to the staff liaison and the City Clerk. The City Clerk shall notify the appointing Councilmember.
- After the third unexcused absence; the Chair will submit a written (email) notice to the member, cc: to the staff liaison and the City Clerk. The City Clerk may issue a notice of removal letter from the Mayor's office upon the direction of the appointing Councilmember.
- Members are not removed from the board or commission roster until City Council has named a replacement member for such board or commission.
- Additionally, the City Council may remove a member for any other cause.

Residency Requirements:

*During the April 17, 2023 City Council meeting, Mayor Nancy Vaughan made a motion, 2nd by Councilmember Sharon Hightower, to revise the Boards and Commissions handbook to include a requirement for all B/C appointees to hold a primary residency within the City of Greensboro city limits. It was confirmed at the meeting, for liaisons to be notified of the adjustment.

Once the City of Greensboro is no longer the primary residency for an appointee, they are no longer eligible to serve on the appointed board/commission. When an appointee provides notification to staff/City Clerk of a change in residency, the seat for that board/commission shall be vacated immediately.

If the board/commission member obligated to live within the City of Greensboro contests that their new property located outside of Greensboro is not a primary residency, but a second or vacation home, the issue of whether the member's residency has changed should be submitted to the City Clerk to forward for Council consideration.

Please note, there are boards/commissions that allow for outside City limit representation, so these boards/commissions are excluded from this rule (Airport Authority, Firefighter Relief Fund Board, GSO Housing Authority, GC Historic Properties Commission, Insurance Advisory Committee, Library Board of Trustees, Piedmont Triad Regional Water Authority, and Tourism Development Authority).

Virtual Attendance:

The Boards and Commissions Handbook provides guidance, instructions, and rules of procedure for the benefit of the City of Greensboro staff liaisons and appointees to the Boards/Commissions. The City Council adopted at the August 15, 2023 meeting of Council, an ordinance 23-117 clarifying procedures for virtual meetings and quorum requirements.

- Quasi-Judicial Boards and Commissions are required to attend in person to be counted toward quorums and for voting purposes.
- For those Boards and Commissions that do not serve a quasi-judicial function, attendance for purposes of determining the quorum and for voting may be by physical or virtual presence at the meeting. Those members who choose to attend virtually are asked to have their cameras on and to appear throughout the meeting, as though they were physically present at the meeting.

For those Boards and Commissions that are created and organized by the City Manager's Office, and not by the City Council, they may also choose to appear physically or virtually and whether their members appear on camera

Code of Conduct:

The City of Greensboro is committed to providing a positive work environment free of discrimination, bias, and bullying. Board and Commission members are personally responsible for maintaining this type of atmosphere. Harassment, words, jokes, actions or comments based on an individual's sex, sexual preference, race, ethnic background, age, religion, physical condition or other legally prohibited characteristic are not allowed.

Conduct or actions which create an offensive or hostile environment is prohibited and will be grounds for immediate removal from the board/commission. No member should be subjected to unsolicited or unwelcomed sexual overtones or conduct, whether verbal or physical. Members who feel they have been victim of sexual or discriminatory harassment are encouraged to let the harasser know the behavior is unwelcome. Additionally, it is vital to report the matter to the Chair and the City of Greensboro staff liaison immediately.

All board and commission members will be required to read and sign The City of Greensboro Boards and Commissions Code of Conduct to acknowledge their commitment to adhere to the good conduct standards described. Staff liaisons will maintain the documents for record keeping purposes.

BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS HANDBOOK

Board and Commission members will consider carefully all matters being reviewed at public meetings, and members shall abstain from making any comments or statements that may create legal conflicts for the city. Such statements are grounds for immediate removal.

Some boards or commissions require an Agreement of Confidentiality. All members of said boards/commissions are required to read and sign said agreements, before serving, or face removal from the board/commission. Staff liaisons will maintain the documents for record keeping purposes.

The democratic process provides for voters to choose elected officials. Those officials in turn appoint other persons to work for and/or to serve the public. Members should embrace the Core Values of the City of Greensboro, acting with honesty, integrity, respect and stewardship as well as with fairness, equity, accountability and with independence from improper influence as they exercise the duties of their office, toward customers, stakeholders, and the community and must not abuse their authority. City Council expects members to follow instructions and to complete their duties with skill in a timely manner.

The use of profane or derogatory language is strictly prohibited.

Respect to the code of conduct: any conduct that interferes with or adversely affect the work of the board/commission shall be reported to the City Clerk by the staff liaison immediately and will be grounds for immediate removal from the board/commission. The seriousness of conduct, the member's record, the member's ability to correct his/her conduct, action taken with previous conduct violations, and other surrounding circumstances will be taken into consideration by City Council prior to removal from the board/commission.

Use of cell phones and electronic devices for personal use during meetings are not permitted. Please step away from the meeting if you must answer or make a call. Electronic devices may be used for meeting business.

It is important to provide up-to-date personal data (changes to name, address, telephone number, e-mail address) to the staff liaison and to the City Clerk. Teamwork is vital to the success of all boards and commissions. Provide encouragement, work together to achieve goals and mission of the board/commission, offer constructive feedback to improve programs; utilize skills and abilities of members; and accept and respect instructions by the board/commission Chair.

General Information:

People may be appointed to 2 boards/commissions at a time because this matter is governed by NCGS § 128-1.1 which allows people to hold up to 2 appointments concurrently. It is the discretion of Council to allow only one appointment to ensure diversity and equity among the boards and commissions.

BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS HANDBOOK

Some boards and commissions have special requirements for membership; i.e., Historic Preservation Commission, Greensboro Housing Authority, Insurance Advisory Committee, and Tourism Development Authority.

The timeframe for an individual's service may vary depending upon the board and specific position to which an individual is appointed. When individuals are appointed to fill portions of terms on a board or commission, the length of their service may be reduced. After serving two full terms, a board member must remain off the board for a full year prior to serving additional terms. Members serve on a board until they are reappointed or a replacement is named.

Information related to boards and commissions members on file in the City Clerk's Office is a matter of public record.

The City Clerk is responsible for the Greensboro City Council's official boards and commissions' records, including data related to appointments, reappointments, and resignations, names added to the data bank, contact information for boards and commissions' members, and other information.

Minutes of the boards and commissions are maintained on file in the City Clerk's office. It is the responsibility of the departmental City staff to prepare and provide agenda/informational packets to board and commission members as well as the City Clerk. It is also the responsibility of the departmental City staff to maintain and update individual departmental webpages on the City's website.

Liaison. A Councilmember will be appointed by the Mayor as liaison to various boards and commissions. The City Clerk will maintain the list of liaison assignments.

Expectations of Appointees to Boards and Commissions:

Attendance. City Council appreciates those who are willing to donate their time to community service. Board and commission members are required to maintain regular attendance. Attendance is critical not only to ensure a quorum but to ensure the rights of the citizens who have requests before the board are addressed in a timely and complete manner. (See attendance policies above).

Respect for the appointment. Board or commission members are granted important decision-making power, and for certain boards their decisions have the effect of law. To be given a position on one of the city's boards or commissions is a commitment not to be taken lightly. To that end, all appointees are expected to understand the seriousness of their appointments and to treat their duties with the dignity and respect they deserve.

Appointees are expected to be prepared for each meeting and to be engaged with the chairperson, City staff members, and the City Council liaison when the occasion calls for it.

BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS HANDBOOK

If an appointee desires to give specific direction to City staff, said direction should come from the board rather than individual members.

Make a difference! The City values its appointees for their diversity, their experience, and their knowledge. Serving on a board or commission can be a rewarding experience and everyone benefits when the City of Greensboro has dedicated volunteers who focus on community needs. Your appointment signifies the City Council's desire to have the benefit of your input. The City welcomes all volunteers, so please spread the word about these service opportunities!

TOURISM DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY (THE GREENSBORO GUILFORD COUNTY)

In April, 1984, the North Carolina Legislature enacted a law permitting Guilford County to levy a sales tax of three percent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room, lodging, or similar accommodation furnished by any hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp, or similar place within the county now subject to the three percent (3%) sales tax levied by the State of North Carolina. The tax is known as the Guilford County Room Occupancy and Tourism Development Tax. (Chapter 988, 1983 Session Laws) Because of the "sunset" on the law, in 1989 the General Assembly enacted an amendment to repeal the "sunset" and modified the provisions regarding use of the proceeds. (Chapter 39, 1989 Session Laws)

Under the provision of the 1989 law, Guilford County remits seventy percent (70%) of the net proceeds of the occupancy tax to the Greensboro/Guilford County Tourism Development Authority and remits the remaining thirty percent (30%) of the net proceeds of the tax to the City of High Point. The Greensboro Guilford County Tourism Development Authority shall allocate eighty percent (80%) of its share of the net proceeds of the occupancy tax in a fiscal year for activities and programs promoting and encouraging travel and tourism. Of the remaining twenty percent (20%), the Authority shall allocate one hundred seventy thousand dollars ($170,000) each year for specific tourist-related events or activities, such as arts or cultural events, or for promoting, improving, constructing, financing, or acquiring facilities or attractions that enhance the development of tourism. Administrative costs of these grants shall be included in the one hundred seventy thousand dollars ($170,000), but such costs shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%). By joint agreement of the Greensboro City Council, the County Commissioners, and the Authority, the responsibility of this grant funding program may be reassigned to one of the other boards. Policy for distribution of these funds shall be set by the responsible board, but consideration should be given to the broad spectrum of programs and activities of all citizens in Greensboro and Guilford County. The remaining portion of the twenty percent (20%) shall go to the City of Greensboro for convention and tourism capital improvements. Approval of expenditures from the capital fund shall be a joint decision by the Greensboro City Council, the Guilford County Commissioners, and the Authority.

Then in April 1991, the General Assembly enacted a local act to permit the City of Greensboro to levy an additional 3 percent (3%) room occupancy and Tourism Development Tax. The net proceeds are divided as follows: twenty percent (20%) to the Tourism Development Authority for programs promoting and encouraging travel and tourism. Eighty percent (80%) to the City to finance renovation and expansion of the Greensboro Memorial Coliseum Arena.
